

Purge-able Toys Chart

Got the urge to purge? Use this chart to decide if you should keep or say bye to some toys or equipment.

Is it even safe?

If toys are broken, have missing or loose parts, recalled item, or too dirty it is definitely time to say bye-bye.

Broken or missing parts

Unsafe - peeling paint, loose parts, jagged or sharp edges

Recalled item

Dirty and not cleanable

Duplicates

Just not needed

Sometimes items use their usefulness. Whether they no longer are appropriate for the ages we serve, look old, or just don't get used, sometimes it's time to let it go.

Age inappropriate

No real value

Not used in the past 6 months

Super sun faded

How to let it go

If it is time to purge it, there are several ways to make room for new stuff.
